

Tutor needed urgently!

Would you enjoy the challenge of working in cooperation with parents to educate their five children? We need a couple or single to come for 7 to 12 months to handle homeschooling in a setting where no appropriate traditional school is available.

The person in this position:

- Works in cooperation with parents to promote student learning in academic subjects in order to meet home-country educational requirements as much as possible
- Adapts method of instruction to maximize local setting and the students' learning styles
- Teaches academic subjects, such as English, Math, and Reading to students requiring individualized instruction
- Adapts curriculum to meet the individual student's needs
- Is responsible for teaching multiple grade levels within the family setting
- Assists parents in planning for the on-going education of their children
- Understands cross-cultural issues and makes appropriate life-style changes to fit local setting

Also preferably has:

- Valid teaching credential
- Special education and/or reading specialty training and experience
- Previous multicultural experience

Contact Person Name: Basia Stroo

Contact Person Email Address: eurasia_1stcontact@sil.org

Photo by Pixabay

